7 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
8 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
9 AT SEATTLE

10 KEVIN BAZLEY,

11 Plaintiff,

12 v.

13 BRAND ENERGY SOLUTIONS,
14 LLC, et al.,

15 Defendants.

CASE NO. C18-1648JLR

ORDER GRANTING IN PART
STIPULATED MOTION TO EXTEND DISCOVERY CUTOFF

16 The discovery deadline is currently set in this case for December 23, 2019, and the 17 dispositive motions deadline is set for January 21, 2020. (See Sched. Order (Dkt. # 15) at 18 1.) On December 12, 2019, the parties filed a stipulated motion to extend the discovery
19 deadline until February 14, 2020. (See Stip. Mot. (Dkt. # 18) at 3.) The parties state that 20 they “do not anticipate filing dispositive motions in this case; therefore, an extension of 21 the discovery cutoff to complete depositions should not adversely impact the Court’s
22 schedule.” (See id. at 3.)

1 Deadlines set by the court's scheduling order and the Local Civil Rules "are firm
2 dates that can be changed only by order of the court, not by agreement of counsel or
3 parties. The court will alter these dates only upon good cause shown: failure to complete
4 discovery within the time allowed is not recognized as good cause." (See Sched. Order at 5 2.) Here, the parties' argument for an extension is based solely on an asserted need for 6 more time to complete discovery, specifically a number of depositions that have not
7 occurred because of "various scheduling conflicts." (See Stip. Mot. at 1-2.)

8 Nevertheless, the court will grant an extension of the discovery deadline until 9 January 21, 2020, the date dispositive motions are due. (See Sched. Order at 1.)
10 Although the parties "do not anticipate" filing dispositive motions, the court will not
11 upend the pretrial schedule based on what the parties "anticipate" they may or may not
12 do. The court cautions the parties that if they wish to seek additional deadline extensions,
13 they must be prepared to show good cause.

14 Accordingly, the court GRANTS in part the parties' stipulated motion (Dkt. # 18)
15 and amends the discovery deadline to January 21, 2020.

16 Dated this 13th day of December, 2019.
